Youth Hall Announcements

Recipes Wanted!!!

See page 15 for more details

Recipes & Artwork Wanted!

The youth hall committee is compiling recipes from around our county. We are hoping for at least 5 recipes per club.

Please provide the ingredients, instructions, member or family name, and 4-H club.

Recipes can be emailed to Jody Peach or Melissa Campos.

jody.peach.rd@gmail.com

melissajcampos@yahoo.com

By sending us your recipe or drawing, you are giving permission to have it published in a youth hall cookbook.

We are also accepting 4-H or cooking-themed artwork for publication in our youth hall cookbook. Drawings should be no larger than 3x5" and hand-rendered.

Project Highlight: Entomology Self-Determined

This project will give you a more detailed look at insects and their kin. You will learn more about the close relatives of insects and what the main differences between the two are. You will also learn about how some insects evolved and what strategies they use to survive.

Exhibit idea for county fair:

Make a poster or notebook exhibit on backyard beekeeping.

Project Highlight: Wildlife III: Waterfowl Management

This project is about waterfowl management including types of waterfowl, migration, habitat, and improvement.

Exhibit idea for county fair:

Make a poster displaying types of waterfowl that migrate through New Mexico and identify their migration routes on a map.

Project Highlight: Adventures with Food

The beginning level “Adventures with Food” is a one-time experience for members 9-11 years old and older youth having no experience with cooking.

Exhibit ideas for county fair:

3 cookies using the recipes in the book (oatmeal, peanut butter, or butterscotch fingers)

Project Highlight: Braiding Self-Determined

In this project, you will expand upon the basic principles of braiding. The self-determined project designation allows you to exhibit your braided item of choice. Make sure to include the Self-Determined form.

Exhibit idea for county fair:
8 plait belt made from nylon cord

Contest Highlight: Fashion Revue

Clothing construction projects can be entered in the fashion revue competition at County Contest. There is no fashion revue at county fair. Winners are eligible to move on to the fashion revue at state conference (seniors) or district contest (novices & juniors). Cloverbuds can participate by modeling an outfit made by someone else.
